

Teresa D. Boyd, D.O.
Deputy Chief of Staff
South Texas Veterans Health Care System

Teresa D. Boyd, DO is the Deputy Chief of Staff for the South Texas Veterans Health Care System (STVHCS), where she has oversight responsibility for clinical operations.

Dr. Boyd received her Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from the Texas College of Osteopathic Medicine in Fort Worth, Texas in 1986. She completed a rotating internship in Osteopathic Medicine at Brighton Medical Center in Portland, Maine in 1987. Dr. Boyd worked as a staff attending at the Brighton Medical Center (BMC) from 1987-1996 where she became a Partner in the ER group that was responsible for staffing the Emergency Room at the BMC. She later became the Trauma Director and Medical Director of the Emergency Medical Service at the Concho County Hospital in Eden, Texas, while in private practice from 1996-2000. Dr. Boyd began her VA career in 2004 after successfully completing 17 years in private practice. In addition, she has served in several physician leadership positions.

Dr. Boyd is a diplomate of the American Osteopathic Board of Family Physicians. She has attended various VA training seminars and received numerous certifications, including System Wide Ongoing Assessment & Review Strategy (SOARS) consultant training and Administrative Investigation Board (AIB) Training. Dr. Boyd is a member of a variety of society memberships, including American College of Healthcare Executives, American College of Physician Executives and Mensa.

Dr. Boyd enjoys country life in Boerne with her husband, children and mother.